SATURDAY 11 MAY

11am Eucharist in St Julian's Church.

12 noon THE JULIAN LECTURE: Companions in Solitude
by Fr Bruce Batstone, CJN, OJN, erstwhile Trustee of the Friends of Julian. One of the first four Companions, received in 2009, Fr Bruce is delighted to be giving the Julian Lecture in this anniversary year. A parish priest in North London, Fr Bruce is a spiritual director himself, and is also involved in the training of directors as a tutor on the London based Ignatian Spirituality Course. He is also oblate of the Order of Julian of Norwich.

Fr Bruce's lecture, Companions in Solitude, will be somewhat autobiographical, looking back at some of the inspiring figures who have lived the solitary life and to whom he looks for inspiration today as he explores what it means to minister from the cave of the heart in companionship with Julian of Norwich.

1pm Lunch. Please bring your own lunch.
Drinks, cakes and biscuits will be available in the Julian Centre.

1.50pm Annual General Meeting

2.30pm Future Forum: Chaired by Shirley Buxton.
Panel: Canon Andy Bryant, representing the landlord of the Julian Centre; Howard Green, Secretary of the Friends of Julian; Sally-Anne Lomas, Trustee of the Friends of Julian. You will be invited to join in a discussion and ask questions of the Panel.

3.30pm Julian Liturgy

3.50pm Companions Receiving of new Companions and renewal of vows.
