A reading from chapter 23 of Revelations of Divine Love

Almighty Father, you gave to your servant, Julian such understanding of your grace and goodness in the passion of your Son, that all things were seen by her to be ordered by your providence and held in your love. Grant us the inward light and the vision of your Holy Spirit, that our hearts being set on fire with love we may live always as though raised to life with Christ, in Whom all is and shall be well, now and to the ages of ages.

Amen.

Lord God, in your compassion you granted to Julian many revelations of your nurturing and sustaining love.
Move our hearts, like hers, to see you above all things, for in giving us yourself you give us all.

Amen.
