

Solitude and Pilgrimage

Two Paths on the Christian Journey

Friday, 12th and Saturday, 13th October 12th 2018

The four addresses will explore both the lives of the two mediaeval women – Margery Kempe of Lynn and Julian of Norwich – and also something of how their writings may still nurture our own Christian lives.

The first two addresses will focus on Margery Kempe and I have called them:

- I. A Short Treatise of Contemplation
- II. In search of the Scallop Shell

The second two addresses will focus on Julian of Norwich and the titles there are:

- III Anchored for life
- IV The Weakness We are Learning

You will doubtless all have your own favourite books on both Margery and Julian. We have chosen Barry Windeatt's texts of their writings:

The Book of Margery Kempe. Penguin Classics

Julian of Norwich: Revelations of Divine Love. Oxford World Classics

****

On Margery Kempe:

Margaret Gallyon, Margery Kempe of Lynn and Mediaeval England, Lutterworth Press, 1995, 2004
Anthony Goodman, Margery Kempe and Her World, Pearson Education, 2002.

On Julian of Norwich:

Grace Jantzen, Julian of Norwich, SPCK Classics, 1987 (Philosopher of religion reflecting philosophically and spiritually/theologically).
Robert Llewellyn, With Pity Not With Blame, Canterbury Press, 2013.
Robert Llewellyn, Enfolded in Love, Darton, Longman and Todd, 2004.
Robert Fruehwirth, The Drawing of this Love, Canterbury Press, Norwich, 2016.

